

January 4, 2007

Congressman Todd Akin's Statement on the convening of the 110th Congress

Washington, D.C. - Congressman Todd Akin (R-MO) issued the following statement regarding the convening of the 110th Congress:

"For the first time in 12 years Democrats control Congress. Although the leadership in Congress has changed, my principles have not.

"I am committed to representing the values of Missouri's Second District. This includes strong national defense, less government waste and policies that stimulate economic growth."